MICHIGAN WILL MAKE IT PLEASANT FOR TOURISTS.

Development Bureau Requests Communities to Provide Camping Places.

Boards of supervisors of two more counties in the Northeastern Michigan Development bureau have made appropriations for carrying on the work of the bureau. This leaves only Saginaw and Clare counties which have not, as yet, contributed anything this year.

During the past year Secretary Marston, of the Northeastern Michigan Development bureau, received many fine samples of corn, some of which, the growers have been planting for a long series of years and which they claim have become so good that they are now producing a cure from it every year. The bureau has obtained a quantity of this corn from the best and most thoroughly acclimated varieties and will distribute it in quantities sufficient to plant a quarter of an acre to any farmer in the district who will agree to return six selected ears from that planting next fall. In addition President Snoddy, of the bureau will give $25 to be used as prizes for those who send in the best samples of this corn.

The Michigan state park commission, of which Secretary Marston, of the development bureau is a member, has given out that it does not intend to use any of the funds at its disposal for the purchase of park sites unless it should be deemed advisable to buy some tract for its historical interest. It is the plan of the commission to use all its funds for the development and upkeep of such park sites as may be donated to it and Mr. Marston says that those communities which hope to have parks maintained, partially at least, by state expense, should have their offers of property ready to submit to the commission not later than the next meeting, if they expect to have anything done this season in the way of surveys, making plans for improvement, etc.

The development bureau is receiving scores of inquiries from farmers in the so-called "dry belt" of the Dakotas, where long droughts have pretty nearly put the farmer and the stock raiser out of business. "It looks as if a lot of those people could be induced to come to Michigan this year," says Secretary Marston.

PITILESS SECRECY.

The Cabinet meeting was called and all were present. After an hour and twenty-five minutes the secretaries filed out, with not a word as to what had transpired. Although it was of surveys, making plans for improvements for relieving the Nation from a threatened famine due to the strike were discussed, the public, the chief party concerned, was given no intimation of what might be expected. President Wilson moves in a mysterious way his wonders to perform.

SKANDINAVIANS MEET IN MEMORIAL.

Wherever there are congregations of Scandinavian people throughout this country, they met in a body last Sunday, the 18th day of April in memory of the battle of Dybbøl, during which conflict five thousand Danish young men lost their lives. Many of the Danish residents of Grayling remember with sadness the sorrow that was theirs on this day in Denmark. Grayling also had a committee who made arrangements to celebrate the day, and a meeting was called to be held at Danebod hall Sunday evening.

At six o'clock, when all had gathered at the hall lunch was announced and all went to the basement of the building, where, looking on, tables all spread awaited them. There was that delicious Danish Smorrebrod and Swedish Smorrebrod, so nicely prepared by the Scandinavian ladies, so many of whom are trained in the culinary art.

After lunch all went to the Assembly room to await the evening program which was to start promptly at 7:00 o'clock. Some very fine talks were listened to, given by Rev. and Mrs. Kjolhede, Mr. Rasmus Hanson and Mr. John H. Cook. Intermingled in this was the singing of different Danish songs, those taking part being Mrs. Kjolhede, Mrs. Laura McLeod, Mrs. Margaret Green, Misses Ingeborg Hanson, Margaret Hemmingson and Inger Hanson, and the Messrs John B. Rosenstand and Nels H. Nelson.

A mental solo was rendered by Miss Ingeborg Hanson, and Mrs. Margaret Green played a beautiful solo on a Hawaiian guitar, which was very much enjoyed. Mrs. Kjolhede sang a solo that had been written in memory of the Day, and the whole company sang a song that had been written to be sung at the mass meeting that was to be held in Minneapolis. There was also nice singing by the girls of the Sunday school classes of the Danish-Lutheran church.

The committee who were in charge of the affair did everything they possibly could to make the occasion a success and one to be long remembered, and their efforts were not made in vain, as everyone enjoyed themselves very much. The gathering was very well attended.

about coming forward in discussion, so the motion was voted upon immediately. The vote was unanimously affirmative. The 1st game will probably be with Gaylord, altho there is no definite schedule as yet.

Mr. Otterbein has an assistant in the 12th grade Civics class. She is known to the class as the "Critic."

Thru these last seven years of school life, These students, have shown their fame. And we often sit and wonder Why we can't do the same.

There will be chapel in the Assembly room every Monday and Wednesday mornings from now on. Arrangements have been made to have some of the citizens speak to us.

Mr. Doty will speak next Monday, and Mr. Morfit the following Wednesday. This is as far ahead as the program has been arranged for. We would be very glad to have any of the citizens visit school on these days.

It's rather embarrassing for a student to set an alarm clock and for all the students (of a certain class) to be held in suspense for a whole period waiting for the alarm to go off, and then have—silence.

Our readers are probably wondering why the School Notes have been so scarce. When the editors ask the teachers for notes they say, "I haven't anything this week."

It naturally enters our minds, "Nor any other week either." Of course, with a few exceptions.

FIRST BREAK OF STRIKE IN EAST

TRAFFIC NEARLY RESTORED TO NORMAL AT SEVERAL POINTS, RAILROADS REPORT.

VOLUNTEERS HELP DETROIT

Former Railroad Men, Thrown Out of Work When Factories Close, Offer Assistance to Roads.

Detroit—Although hundreds of striking railway employees were reported to have gone back to work before the expiration of the read's ultimatum in many of the backbone of the strike in the chief zone of trouble—Chicago—appeared not to have been broken.

Strikers there stood pat demanding recognition of their association. They declared the original demands stand and made plans to continue the strike which they insist is a success, although the railroads announce a further improvement in switching operations.

Former railway men, recruited from the thousands of workers released from Detroit's idle factories during the week, because of the yardmen's strike, are relied upon to break through the freight tieup here.

Henry Shearer, superintendent of the Michigan Central Railway company, said that volunteers have been called for, and that the response had been considerable.

Striking Detroit yardmen Saturday maintained an unbroken front, insisting that they will not go back to work unless their demands for $1 an hour and 95 cents for helpers are granted.

Conditions Improve in East.

Camden, N. J.—One thousand striking switchmen and shopmen here last Saturday voted to return to work pending adjustment of wage demands by the Railroad Labor Board. The decision was reached at a meeting during which there was great excitement, a number of the strikers bitterly opposing abandonment of the strike. The men were employees of the West Jersey & Seashore Railroad and the Atlantic division of the Philadelphia & Reading.

Engineers of the Lackawanna Railroad who had joined the "outlaw" strike of switchmen and yardmen voted to return to work immediately.

The embargo on express traffic was raised on shipments to and from all points on the Pennsylvania system with the exception of New York, Baltimore, Pittsburgh and local points on the New York division. This will permit the resumption of shipments of vegetables and perishable freight from Florida and other southern points to Northern cities.

D. U. R. CREWS ASK INCREASE

Want $1 An Hour For Experienced Conductors and Motormen.

Detroit—D. U. R. conductors and motormen through a committee appointed last Saturday night are presenting to the company a demand for an increase in wages.

One dollar an hour is the demand framed on behalf of the experienced employees of the street railway company.

A joint meeting of members of Unions Nos. 90, the Rapid Railway men; No. 111, the Detroit-Jackson division; and No. 26, including the Detroit, Monroe & Toledo employees, was to be held this week to consider the demands for higher wages more thoroughly.

The interurban companies which are involved in the demands for more pay presented by the motormen and conductors have never before been affected by a strike or threatened strike in which the city lines were involved.

CHARGE PREMIER WITH MURDER

Slame for Assassination of Irish Mayor Laid to Lloyd George.

Cork, Ireland—Charges of wilful murder against Premier Lloyd George were brought in the inquest into the death of Mayor MacCurtain, of this city, assassinated last month. The verdict also charges Viscount French, lord lieutenant of Ireland; Ian MacPherson, former chief secretary and several police inspectors with murder.

That part of the verdict laying the crime to the hands of the police thought the jury would go so far as to charge the premier, Viscount French and Mr. MacPherson with the murder, even though the charge is likely to mean little more than an expression of sentiment against these officials.

It is different, however, with the police officers who, in the usual course would be expected to be placed under arrest immediately.

BERGDOLL, CONVICTED SLACKER, APPEALS.

Washington.—Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, millionaire auto racer and aviator of Philadelphia, who was tried by court-martial at Governor's Island, New York, and sentenced to five years' imprisonment on the charge of desertion from the military service, will contest his conviction before the war department and, if necessary, before the supreme court of the United States, it was announced, Bergdoll is now in a federal prison, sorting laundry.

SIGNS WILL MARK ALL STATE TRUNK LINE ROADS.

Trunk line highways of Michigan are to be marked throughout the state within a short time, Frank F. Rogers, state highway commissioner, has advised Captain W. S. Gilbreath, manager of the Detroit Automobile club.

A law authorizing the state highway department to undertake this work was passed by the legislature. Last fall the highway department planned to start the work, it was later decided to put off the task till spring.

A standard design for markers was selected last year and this will be used on all the routes. The trunk line number will be painted on each pole where the design is placed. This will enable a motorist to travel to any section of the state by carrying a small map bearing the route numbers.

Removal of all advertising signs from the roads is another project to be undertaken. Under the terms of a recently enacted law the highway department is authorized to do this.

"We are about to mark the trunk lines with our standard markers," Commissioner Rogers said, "at which time we are authorized to remove all advertising signs within the limits of the highway. I further wish to advise that we intend to enforce this law."

FINDS BUSY TIMES IN GRAND RAPIDS.

Rev. Fr. Riess Remembers His Grayling Friends.

April 20, 1920.

I am very very busy, in fact am not yet settled. This is a large and wonderful parish and it keeps one "on the jump" all the time. Have had no opportunity to even drop a card to my many Grayling friends. Kindly extend my best wishes to all and tell them that I have often thought of them and remember them in my prayers. I enjoy the "Avalanche" it gives me the news of "Home."

With best wishes for your success, I am respectfully yours,
(Rev.) John J. Riess.

TO THE FATHERS AND MOTHERS OF GRAYLING:

I ask you to co-operate with me and help enforce the curfew law of our village which provides, all children under the age of fifteen must be off the streets at nine o'clock unless accompanied by their parents or guardian. If you are going to send your children to the show please send them to the first show and instruct them that they must go home when the show is out.

I also find that a lot of the young boys are shooting "craps" and playing pennies, this is strictly against the law. If the boys are caught doing this they will be locked up and a complaint made against their parents. With your assistance we can stop this bad practice. Thanking you in advance.

M. Brenner,
City Marshal.

NOTICE FOR CLEAN-UP.

Notice is hereby given to residents of Grayling that they should have their yards cleaned up and all rubbish and ashes hauled away before May 10th, 1920. Toilets must be cleaned and manure piles removed.

There will be no rubbish nor ashes hauled away by the Village this year as was done in former years. The citizens must attend to this themselves.

The above order is given in accordance with the State Health statutes and must be complied with under the penalty of the law. 4-22-3.

Peter E. Johnson,
Village Health Officer.

TO AUTO DRIVERS.

It seems that some of the automobile drivers of our village have lost sight of the fact that the state law and village ordinance provides that the speed limits are ten miles per hour on the main street and fifteen miles per hour on side streets. Complaint will be made against anyone violating this law. Some drivers are driving thirty and forty miles per hour and endangering the lives of our citizens. It is your duty as well as the officers to make complaint against anyone violating this ordinance.

M. Brenner,
City Marshal.

COAL DUST LODGED IN MINER'S LUNGS

Tells how his cough was conquered and health restored.

"In November, 1918, I was working in a coal mine and the doctors said the coal dust had settled in my lungs. I couldn't lie down on my right side, coughed so I couldn't sleep and had constant pain in my right lung and under my shoulder blades. I coughed so hard the blood would spurt out of my nose. Finally the doctors had me change climate and live outdoors, but didn't improve.

"Then I came home and started on Mils Emulsion. Thank God I did, as it did me a lot of good right from the start, loosened up the coal dust in my right lung. In a few weeks my lungs were free. I could sleep like a baby, had an excellent appetite and my cough left me entirely. I gained back 30 pounds in weight and went back to work in the mines completely restored to health."

G. H. Bunn, 6th Ave. & No. 13th St., Terre Haute, Ind.

Thousands of victims of dust-filled air develop the same trouble that Mr. Bunn had. Mils Emulsion costs nothing to try, as why not at least try it?

Mils Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. It helps build flesh and strength, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case you are urged to try Mils Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions, and if not satisfied with the results your money will be refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Mils Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.—Adv.

EAT LESS AND TAKE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Take a Glass of Salts if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.—Adv.

Easy.

"I wish I knew how to make a barrel of money?" sighed the little man. "That's easy," replied the big man. "Spend a half barrel of money in advertising and you'll soon have a barrel of money."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

"Cascarets"

Feel grand! Be efficient! Don't stay sick, bilious, headachy, constipated. Remove the liver and bowel poison which is keeping your head dizzy, your tongue coated, your breath bad and your stomach sour. Why not get a small box of Cascarets and enjoy the nicest, gentlest laxative-cathartic you ever experienced? It sends its harmful acids and gases all over the body, instead of health and strength. Day and night this ceaseless damage goes on. No matter how strong, its victim cannot long withstand the health-destroying effects of an acid stomach.

Good news for millions of sufferers. Chemists have found a sure remedy—one that takes the acid up and carries it out of the body; of course, when the cause is removed, the sufferer gets well.

Bloating, indigestion, sour, acid, gassy stomach miseries all removed. This is proven by over half a million sipping folks who have taken EATONIC with wonderful results. ## A BEAUTIFUL GHOST.

Synopsis.—Spalding Nelson is occupying the apartments of his great-uncle, Rufus Gaston. The Gastons, leaving on a trip, tell him about mysterious noises and "whispers" that have scared them. He becomes acquainted with Barbara Bradford, who lives in the same big building. He instinctively dislikes and distrusts the superintendent, Wick. The mysteries in his apartments begin with the disappearance of the Gaston pearls from the wall safe. He decides not to call in the police, but to do his own investigating. It is soon evident that someone has access to his rooms. Becoming friendly with Barbara, he learns that her apartments are equally mysterious. She tells him that several years before her sister Claire, who lives with her, had made a run-away marriage with an adventurer, from whom she was soon parted, and the marriage had been annulled. Claire is engaged to be married and someone has stolen documents concerning the affair from the Bradford apartment and is attempting to blackmail the Bradfords. Nelson takes Miss Kelly, the telephone girl, to dinner with the idea of pumping her. Gorman, a hotel detective, recognizes her as the wife of Lefty Moore, a noted burglar. Nelson partly confides in the detective and arranges to meet him.

"You're right about that," I replied,

"and say, look here. Why can't you meet me somewhere tomorrow afternoon. There are a lot of mysterious things happening in the Granddeck. Maybe you can help me in trying to clear them up."

"It's a date. I'll be in the back room of Jim Connor's place over on Third avenue at three o'clock waiting for you."

"I'll be there," I said, as I had him good night.

"Hold on a minute," he said. "Do you know where Lefty Moore's wife lives now?"

I recalled the number she had told me to give the taxi man and repeated it to him, an address way over on East Sixty-second street near the river.

"I like to know them sort of things," he explained. "In our business you never know when you'll be needing them."

On my way home, after I left him, I congratulated myself on having made James Gorman's acquaintance. In him I had found a man with police and detective experience. The fact that he held a responsible position with a big hotel ought to be sufficient voucher for his honesty. Of course Miss Bradford must be consulted before I met Gorman the next afternoon. I could hardly tell him my own almost unbelievable experiences without bringing in the attempts to blackmail her sister. Surely Miss Bradford would not object to my plan. We were making such poor headway in solving the mystery ourselves that I was certain she would welcome Gorman's advice.

And would it not be a surprise to Barbara Bradford to learn that a criminal—or at least the wife of a criminal—was employed as a telephone girl in the apartment house? I was hoping that she would be at home and in her room when I arrived at the house so that I might signal her and tell her my great news at once.

I left myself into the apartment and without bothering to turn on the lights, made my way back toward my own room. As I reached the end of the hall my ears detected a scuffling noise that seemed to come from my quarters. I stopped stock-still and listened breathlessly. Unquestionably there was someone in my room.

I tiptoed softly forward. As I crept along in the darkness, making no sound, I found myself devoutly wishing for some weapon. Of course it might be Barbara, who had entered by means of the ledge to leave some message for me, but if it were not she, I felt certain that I would discover who was at the bottom of the plots against us.

I gnined the door without my presence having been discovered. In the dim half-light that came from the open window I could detect a figure standing on a chair apparently feeling along the wall near the ceiling. I recalled with curiosity that it was from that spot that the whispers I had heard had seemed to come.

Inch by inch I edged noiselessly forward, my eyes on the intruder until at last my fingers found the electric light button. As the light flooded the room there was a suppressed scream, followed by a frightened gasp. The figure on the chair turned quickly and faced me. I saw that it was a woman, a badly frightened woman, with her hands clutching at her heart. Almost instantly I recognized her. It was not Barbara Bradford, but her sister, Claire. She was clad in some sort of a dark house gown thrown over her nightgown. Her slipped feet were bare of stockings, and her hair hung in a great build down her back.

As I stared at her she sprang from the chair and made a rush for the open window. I grabbed for her and though she fought desperately I managed to hold her fast and to drag her away from the window. After a moment's futile resistance she suddenly collapsed in my arms, moaning in a tense whisper:

"Let me go, please let me go."

I placed her in a chair, and still keeping a tight hold on one of her arms, studied her, debating what to do. What desperate motive could have driven this girl to the daring journey across the narrow ledge by which she had gained access to my quarters? Was she, I wondered, once more in the power of that evil husband of hers, driven by fear of him to such desperate deeds.

"Let me go," she moaned again.

"Not until you tell me what you were doing in my rooms," I answered firmly.

"I did not know there was any one here. I thought the apartment was vacant. I thought the Gastons were away."

"But why did you come?"

"I can't tell that," she moaned. "I can't. I can't!"

"You must," I repeated. "I am going to keep you here until you do tell me."

"You must not keep me here," she said. "I don't want my people to know about my having been here. You look like a gentleman. Please let me go."

"Doesn't Barbara—doesn't your sister know you are here?"

At my mention of her sister's name an expression of amazement escaped her.

"Who are you?" she asked excitedly.

"How did you know who I was?"

"I am a friend of your sister," I answered. "She will tell you who I am. You must trust me. I feel I have a right to know what you are doing here. Won't you tell me?"

A strange look came into her eyes and she shook her head.

"You wouldn't understand. I was trying to trace the whispers."

"The whispers?" I cried excitedly. "You have heard them, too?"

"Often," she said. "I heard them tonight. Mother and Barbara were out to the theater. They seemed to come from near the ceiling in my sister's room. They seemed to vanish in the direction of this room. I decided to creep along the ledge and see if I could trace them."

"And did you succeed?"

She shook her head.

"When I first came in this room I could still hear them. They seemed to be coming from up near the ceiling. I got up on a chair and put my ear to the wall to listen. Then they stopped altogether and then—you came in. May I go now—before my mother comes home?"

"On one condition," I answered. "that you tell your sister about your having been here."

"I'll tell her if you wish me to," she replied. "and now, please say I go? Could you let me out of your door? See, I brought a key to my apartment with me. I don't think I dare make that trip across the ledge tonight."

As I escorted her to the door, my mind in a whirl over the events of the evening, I suddenly remembered how important it was that I should see her sister for a long talk before I kept my appointment with Gorman.

"Tell your sister," I said to Claire Bradford as she departed, "that it is imperative that she meet me at lunch on tomorrow. I have news of the utmost importance—news that concerns all of us. Tell her to meet me at the Astor at one. She must come."

"I'll tell her," she replied.

CHAPTER VII.

It was the next evening that I made my astounding discovery, when pure chance led me plump into what both Barbara Bradford and I recognized at once as our first real clue to the mysteries surrounding us.

My mind came unexpectedly at the end of an exciting day. As may be imagined I slept little in the hours following my unexpected meeting with Claire Bradford in my rooms, coming as it did right on top of Detective Gorman's revelations as to the identity of the telephone girl. Coupled with these circumstances was the fact that if my hopes were realized, Barbara would be within a very few hours of being with me for the first time.

I just had to see her before I met Gorman. The tale I was so unfast to him was so improbable, so almost unbelievable, that I wanted to go over it with her step by step, in order to be able to convince the detective that it was the absolute truth.

I could not help but realize how preposterous it would sound in the telling. Mr. Gorman could hardly be blamed for believing that my mind had been inflamed by witnessing too many movie thrillers. Yet I had proof. There were the entries in my great-uncle's diary that I could show. I had the anonymous notes. My story of the strange whispers, if need be, could be confirmed by the old landlady, by Barbara Bradford, yes, and by Claire, too. That is, if the reason Claire had given to account for her presence in my room was the true one. It sounded logical, and yet I did not place the confidence in her that I did in Barbara. But what I relied on most of all to convince Gorman of the truth of my preposterous tale was his own knowledge of who the telephone girl was. Just when I had reached the deduction that the band plotting against us must have a confidant in the building, he had come forward with the knowledge that pointed toward the person most apt to be involved.

I was pondering it all over in my mind as I left the house to meet Barbara. I was out on the street and just turning the corner when I remembered that I had spent most of the money in my pocket the night before. Retracing my steps, I returned to my apartment and took some bills from their hiding-place in the oakcase. As I emerged into the street again, I became aware that across the street was a man whose appearance seemed vaguely familiar. As I once more turned the corner, walking briskly, I glanced back for a second look at him and was surprised to see him coming in my direction.

Then all at once my subconscious mind came to my rescue. I realized when it was that I had seen him before and what made his appearance so familiar. As I left the house not ten minutes ago that very same man had been standing across the street. As I had turned back at the corner he had been coming in my direction just as he was now.

He must be following me, trailing me, shadowing me. I determined to test out my theory. At the next corner I turned sharply, glancing quickly back as I did so. He was still following me, though on the other side of the street and perhaps half a block away. I went a few steps out of sight and then stopped as if to look in a shop window. He came hurrying around the corner an instant later, slowing down as soon as he spotted me again and walked on slowly past me as if not noticing me. I waited until he was some distance beyond and retracing my steps quickly to the avenue again stopped in the shelter of a building to light a cigar, purposely wasting a number of matches. In hardly ten seconds he was back, covertly watching me from the other side of the street.

There was no question about it. He was trailing me. But who could be having me shadowed? Certainly he was not in the employ of the Bradfords or of Detective Gorman. Either he must be one of the band of plotters, or—I hated to voice my suspicion, but somehow the thought of my great-uncle Rufus kept obtruding itself. It would be just like the suspicious old miser, if it was he who had planned all this development, to put me in a position of trust and then to have me watched night and day.

Whoever it was that inspired this pursuit, I determined to lead my shadow a merry chase. Jumping into a taxi I bade the driver take me to a department store. Looking back I saw the shadow hastily entering another cab. Arrived at my destination I thrust fare and tip into the driver's hand and hurrying inside managed to catch an elevator just ascending. One flight up I got out and reentered the main floor by a staircase at the rear, emerging thence on to a side street. A second taxi took me to the Twenty-eighth street subway station, and there, with no sign of my pursuer, I took a train to Times square and went to the Astor to meet Barbara Bradford, arriving on the dot of one. She was there awaiting me and we quickly found a secluded table in one of the less conspicuous rooms.

"I've told Claire everything," she said as soon as we were seated. "I hope you're not angry with me."

"Of course not. You had to tell her. I am sorry to have frightened her."

"She shouldn't have gone to your room. That's just like her, though. She always acts on the spur of the moment. She's awfully worried, too, poor girl."

"We can save her," I said.

"Why," she asked quickly, "what have you learned?"

"I was convinced that they must have someone in the house aiding them. I've found out who it is. It's the telephone girl—Nellie Kelly is the name she goes by."

"I can't believe it," cried the girl, shocked at my statement. "She's only a girl like myself. I have talked to her lots of times. I'm certain there's nothing wicked or wrong about her."

"I'm afraid there is," I explained. "I took her out to dinner last night, to the White Room. The house detective, while she was off telephoning, practically ordered me out of the place because I was with her. She's notorious. Her husband is Lefty Moore, a well-known burglar. He's in Sing Sing now. Detective Gorman arrested him. He ought to know."

"Oh, the poor girl," exclaimed Miss Bradford, tears welling up in her eyes. "I'm so sorry for her."

"But think of your sister. Think what they are trying to do with Miss Kelly's aid."

"She shouldn't have gone to your room. That's just like her. Strong."

"But think of your sister. Think what they are trying to do with Miss Kelly's aid."

"But how do you know who's aiding them?"

"I don't know it. But I do know that nobody could pull off all the things that have been happening in the Granddeck without some one there helping them. We've found someone used to helping criminals—a criminal's wife. Isn't that enough? All we need to do now is to watch her closely and fasten the thing on her."

"How are you going to do that?"

"That's why I insisted on your coming here today. I am to meet Detective Gorman at three. I feel that he could aid us, and I think we ought to tell him everything."

"Tell the police?" Her face grew white at the thought. "Wouldn't that mean a scandal—the newspapers and all that sort of thing?"

I shook my head decisively.

"Gorman's not with the police now. He is employed as a hotel detective. But he is just the man we need to help us. He knows all about criminals and how to track them. With his aid we can quickly clear the whole thing up."

"Will you have to tell him everything—about Claire's marriage?"

"We've either got to tell him everything or nothing."

"Oh, how I wish we did not have to. The more people there are who know about things the more likely they are to become public."

"Yet you trusted me with your sister's secret."

She gave me a quick glance of confidence.

"You're different."

"I'm afraid most people would not agree with you. They would regard me as a worthless, discredited young fellow out of a job."

"But it's not your fault."

"The point is," I went on, "that we have reached a place where we need expert advice. Gorman has fortuitously turned up to give it. The only way is to tell him everything."

For a moment she debated the matter silently, her pretty forehead puckered in thought.

"Yes," she said at last, "I suppose it is the only way. But won't he want a lot of money for his services?"

"I'll attend to that," I answered. "I'll make my great-uncle reward him handsomely for recovering the Gaston jewels."

"If he does."

"He must. We've got to get them back."

From her hand-bag she produced the anonymous letters she had received and handed them to me.

"Will you want to show the detective these?"

"Yes, I think I had better. The whole tale sounds so preposterous that I need every bit of corroborative evidence we can muster."

For half an hour we fingered over the table, discussing all the aspects of the case. Eventually I think I persuaded Miss Bradford that the evidence pointed most damningly to the telephone girl as one of the conspirators or at least one of their aides. She was eager to know what plan of action Gorman would advise and as we parted we arranged to be at our adjoining windows at ten that evening in order that we might have another chat.

I found Gorman waiting for me at the place he had mentioned.

"I told you that girl was a bad one," was his greeting.

"What do you mean?" I cried.

"What have you learned about her?"

"Nothing except that the address she gave you last night was phony. The number she gave is the hospital grounds"—he pronounced it "hors-pit."

"Where does she live, then?"

"She's keeping that under cover. She shook the taxi at Fifty-ninth and Third."

Detective Gorman to the rescue.

To the Housewife—Stop Polishing!

Silver Plate—Nickel Plate

YOUR chest of silver, the plate in your dining room, the fittings in your bath room, certain kitchen utensils, and ever so many other articles about the house can all be either silver or nickel plated. Make them look like new—without polishing drudgery to you.

Energy is saved. More satisfactory results obtained when you silver or nickel plate instead of using the old time methods of polishing. The only reason that polishing is more in practice than plating is because you have not been educated to the advantages of plating.

Outside of the house there is the motor car—ever so many other things that can be plated.

Discard the can of polish—it only gives a temporary lustre despite hard work. Remember that every time you polish an article you are wearing down the polishing surface. In other words, you are making the article old, beyond recall.

We have handled thousands of articles for the household and we have yet to receive a complaint of unsatisfactory service.

We can silver, nickel, copper, or brass plate—no matter if the article is as small as a tack or as massive as a bath tub.

Look over the articles in your household or garage that need brightening up—write us about them. We will quote you prices if you will enumerate the articles—if it is an odd size, tell us approximately its dimensions.

We want you to experience that Grand and Glorious Feeling! We know the satisfaction that we can give you will make your friends our customers.

CRUSHES HAND IN MILL GEARING.

Charles Tromble Suffers Painful Accident.

Charles Tromble lost three fingers and half of his left hand in a gearing at the Old Mill Friday noon, while oiling the machinery. The fingers of his glove caught into the gearing and drew his hand in with it, crushing the last three fingers and half of the hand to his wrist, leaving only the index finger and thumb. He was taken to Mercy hospital where Drs. Keyport and Howell dressed the wounds.

Mr. Tromble was about to oil the machinery and accidentally dropped the oil can and reached for it with his right hand when the left hand, which had a glove partly on, he being in the act of putting it on when he dropped the can, caught into a gear wheel and drew the hand into it, crushing it to pulp. It was a very painful accident and caused the patient much suffering. The grease and grime on the machine was ground into the wound, causing some anxiety for fear of infection.

The patient is getting along as nicely as may be expected. Mr. Tromble is one of the oldest and most faithful and reliable employees of the Salling Hanson company.

EARL FRANKFATHER PASSED AWAY.

Death, early Tuesday morning relieved the intense sufferings of Charles Earl Frankfather, at his home on the South side. The cause of death was cancer of the face, from which Mr. Frankfather had been ill for the past five months, and which has caused him much agony. He consulted specialists and everything was done to cure him of the disease but of no avail. Death came at 2:15 o'clock Tuesday morning, and the wholly unexpected was a shock to his family. For the past few weeks the end has been looked for at almost any time. Besides his wife two young children survive, who are Martha and Ambrose. He was the father of four children, two of whom died in infancy.

Charles Earl Frankfather was born in Wood County, Ohio, on the 25th day of November, in the year 1875, being at the time of his death 44 years, 4 months and 25 days old. He was a member of the National guards at the time of the inauguration of Ex-president William McKinley and also at the time that the World's fair was held in Chicago.

Mr. Frankfather and family came to Grayling four years ago from Provemont, Leelanau county, and since that time he had been employed at the local du Pont plant, until he took ill and was unable to work. He was a member of the local Council, Knights of Columbus No. 1382 and also of the Modern Woodmen. He was a member of St. Mary's church. The remains were taken yesterday afternoon to Provemont, the family's former home for burial. Besides the widow and two children, a brother A. F. Frankfather of Flint survives.

REPUBLICANS HOLD COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republican county convention assembled at the Court house Wednesday afternoon of this week and elected delegates to the State and District conventions. Every township was represented by full delegations.

County Chairman M. A. Bates being absent from the city George L. Alexander acted in that capacity. O. P. Schumann was elected chairman.

After the appointment and reports of the usual committees the work of electing delegates to the State and District conventions was taken up and resulted in the selection of Emil Kraus and John J. Niederer for delegates to both conventions.

The convention was graced by the presence of one lady delegate, Mrs. Laura Olson.

During the convention the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolution. We the Republicans of Crawford County in convention assembled do hereby resolve:

1st. That we renew our faith in the Republican party and its principles which have contributed so largely to the existence and prosperity of all our great Country.

2nd. We believe that the actions and policies of the Democratic party as exemplified by its legislation and the autocratic practices of the President has been detrimental to the welfare of this Country and contrary to the great principle that this should be a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

3rd. We believe that the greatest danger now menacing this Country is the fault-finding spirit existing between and the lack of confidence in each other of the classes of this Country, and that we can not prosper until the old animosities which once existed, of confidence in and respect for each other once more exists, and we pledge ourselves to earnest and honest effort to so legislate and execute the laws that no class of the people shall have any legitimate reason to condemn or distrust any other class.

4th. There is no room in this Country for the Bolshevik and he should be either wiped out of existence or deported to more congenial climes.

Resolution. Acknowledging the splendid work and service of our congressman Gilbert A. Currie, we the delegates to the Crawford county convention here assembled, assure him of the deep appreciation of the Republicans of Crawford county, whom we are privileged to represent here today.

And, therefore be it resolved that the fidelity and trust of the Republicans of our county be accorded Congressman Currie in his candidacy for the coming term to succeed himself.

Crawford County Republican Convention, Grayling, Michigan, Dated April 1, 1920.

Respectfully submitted, Marius Hanson, James F. Knibbs, O. P. Schumann.

$50.00 REWARD. A reward of $50.00 will be given to anyone giving information leading to the arrest and conviction of the guilty parties who shot our dogs Otto Peterson.

Will Hemmingson.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the cause be removed and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be forever lost. This is a case of deafness are caused by catarhal, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surface of the Eustachian Tube. It is cured by the use of Dr. F. J. Cheney's Catarrhal Medicine, which acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Dr. F. J. Cheney's Catarrhal Medicine. Free. All Druggists. 75c. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

RAILROAD STRIKE LEADERS NABBED

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE SAYS I. W. W. AND BOLSHEVISTS INCITED WALKOUTS.

NEW RAIL LABOR BOARD MEETS

Pressure For Speedy Settlement of Strike Hurries Action—West Reports Conditions Improve.

Washington.—The arrest of John Grunau, president of the Chicago Switchmen's union, and other "out-law" strike leaders, is but the beginning of a new round-up of radical Reds who have been plotting to wreck industry and overthrow the government by force ever since the failure of the steel strike according to government officials.

Department of justice agents are on the trail of others working under the direction of William Z. Foster, who engineered the steel strike, and additional arrests are reported in Toledo, Detroit, Cleveland and other cities.

Senator Pomerene, of Ohio, a member of the Senate interstate commerce committee, states that he has received information confirming charges that the present railroad strike is the work of paid agents of the I. W. W. and Communist party of America, "boring from within" the brotherhoods and other regular railroad unions. These charges were also made by the department of justice last week.

Plans for a general railroad strike were laid, Mr. Pomerene said, at a meeting held last December in Chicago. The meeting was called by I. W. W. leaders, and presided over by C. M. Ogden and A. E. Reese. At this meeting it was proposed at first to organize the train crews into "one big union," but owing to the notoriety received by Foster during the steel strike, it was decided to organize the yard men first.

Toledo Strikers Return.
Toledo, O.—Railroad yardmen went unanimously back to work last Saturday. More than 1,000 switchmen and other yard employees in the Toledo territory who had been off duty on a "vacation" for 10 days reported for work during the day and were given their old jobs.

The strikers met in mass gathering Saturday morning and were told by members of the executive committee that the railroads would take them back without discrimination. As the men left the meeting they reported back to their yard masters and signed up for work. Many of the crews went to work immediately.

Leaders of Strike Arrested.

Chicago.—Speedy disintegration of unauthorized railroad strikes in the central and far west was forecast last Friday with the serious blow struck by the government at the insurgents' stronghold in Chicago by the arrest of 25 strike leaders.

Warnings were issued last Friday in the principal strike centers in the west that unless the men returned to work by Saturday their positions would be declared vacant and new men employed.

In Chicago 550 switchmen employed on various roads returned to work, railroad executives announced, and a continued improvement was reported in traffic conditions. Steel mills at Gary, Ind., where 10,000 workers have been idle, resumed operations.

The situation in Michigan and Ohio, where several hundred thousand industrial workers have been forced out of employment, remained virtually unchanged.

Rail Labor Board Meets.

Washington.—Direct government intervention in the railroad strike situation took shape last Friday with the initial meeting of the railway labor board, created by the transportation act to deal with all railroad labor disputes.

The nine members of the board, called by the president, to meet and organize immediately, were confirmed by the senate after two days of discussion of Mr. Wilson's selections.

There was pressure for speedy completion of organization by the board, that quick action might be had in the strike situation. Virtually all strikers throughout the country who have voted to return to work, did so with the stipulation that their demands would be referred to the board.

Officials of the railway brotherhoods which have opposed the strike movement, government officers and members of congress, in urging the strikers to return to work, have held out to them assurances of prompt action through the board upon their specific complaints or demands.

Commuters Run New York Trains.

New York.—The long suffering commuter, satirized in the funny columns and on the stage, has given a remarkable demonstration of his power by practically "breaking" the strike in the passenger service departments of the Erie and Jersey Central railroads. Trains loaded with suburban business men were brought into the terminals, manned by volunteers—brokers, lawyers, merchants, salesmen, engineers and other professional men.

NEW AUTO THEFT LAW SENDS MAN TO PRISON FOR THREE YEARS

Detroit.—Robert Edwards, the first man in Michigan to be arrested for violating the new Dyer interstate auto theft act, was sentenced to three years in Leavenworth federal prison when he pleaded guilty before Judge Tuttle in U. S. district court. Department of justice agents testified Edwards stole an automobile in Detroit and drove it to Toledo, where he sold it to a used car dealer. Judge Tuttle announced leniency will not be shown violators of the new act. The minimum penalty, said, would be a $1,000 fine.

SELFIDGE ITEM REINSTATED

Purchase of Aviation Field By U. S. Government Seems Certain.

Washington.—Congressman James last week offered a committee amendment to the army appropriation bill providing an appropriation of $190,000 for the purchase of Selfridge field, near Detroit, which was adopted.

The field is now used by the government for aviation purposes, and it is intended by the James amendment that such shall be its permanent use. The government has spent $2,300,000 on the field already, and its option to purchase it expires June 1.

The amendment was in the bill at one time, and then eliminated in the military committee. Congressmen Doremus and Nichols of Detroit, Scott, Fordney and others of the Michigan delegation, reinforced by Col. Edgar, of Detroit, appeared before the military committee, and made such a strong showing for the necessity of the legislation that the committee agreed to reinstate the item.

INTERVENTION CRY RENEWED

Henry Lane Wilson Demands U. S. Send Forces Into Mexico.

Washington.—Intervention in Mexico as far as the 22nd parallel has been suggested to the Senate Mexican investigating committee by Henry Lane Wilson, former ambassador to Mexico.

The territory suggested by Wilson includes the rich Tampico oil fields. Alternative solutions which would make intervention unnecessary are establishment of an orderly republic in Northern Mexico or a morally binding agreement that would protect American-owned industries and farm lands in Mexico, Wilson said.

SCHOOLGIRL SLAIN WITH AXE

Aged Man Calls Grand Child Out of School and Kills Her.

Muskegon, Mich.—Stewart Moon, 72 years old, retired lumberman, called his granddaughter, 10 years old, out of the Glendale school at Muskegon Heights and killed her with an ax. Arrived, he said he did it because he believed he was soon to die and wanted her in Heaven. The girl was the daughter of Edward B. Moon, Muskegon Heights business man. The aged slayer is believed mentally unbalanced. The granddaughter, his favorite, had been much in his company. For many days he had been going to the school to see her.

AID FOR SHIP BUYERS SOUGHT

Shipping Board Urged to Assist Purchasers of U. S. Vessels.

Washington.—Government financial aid for companies purchasing shipping board vessels to enable them to compete successfully with foreign lines was recommended by business men and members of congress who advised with the board on methods of transferring into private hands the government-owned merchant marine.

Agreeing upon the advisability of the board disposing of its fleet, the conferees, upon motion of Fred H. Wells, of Minneapolis, adopted a resolution that "the ships should be sold upon such prices and terms that the American merchant marine may be firmly established."

MEXICAN REBELS VICTORIOUS

Uprising Against Carranza Regime Appears Successful.

Agua Prieta, Sonora, Mexico.—Military forces of the new "republic of Sonora" have crossed the state line of Sinaloa, captured several towns and continued towards Culiacan, capital of the neighboring state, thus taking the aggressive in the state's fight against the Carranza government of Mexico.

Sullivan, Democratic Boss, Is Dead.

Chicago.—Roger C. Sullivan, aged 59, Democratic leader of Cook county and prominent in state and national politics for 30 years, died at his home in Chicago last week of bronchial pneumonia. He had been seriously ill a month. Mr. Sullivan condemned in his own state by his opponents as a "boss" and more than once "read out" of the Democratic party by William Jennings Bryan, led the movement that finally resulted in making Woodrow Wilson president.

More Marked Facilities Urged.

Birmingham, Ala.—Master plumbers of Birmingham, are required to furnish chauffeurs to drive union plumbers to and from work and the chauffeurs are not permitted to do any plumbing work, according to findings of a committee of allied civic clubs which investigated the recent demand of the union men for a wage of $12 a day. The committee said its inquiry also had disclosed that use of apprentices was forbidden with a view to restricting the number of available plumbers.

Champion Life Saver Is Dead.

Detroit.—Capt. John Horn, champion life-saver of the city died here last week at age of 77. Capt. Horn had 135 rescues to his credit. Congress awarded him two medals, one being in 1886 for the rescue of nine persons in one night. Detroit gave him a gold watch and chain in 1887 in appreciation of his life-saving services. He was formerly city alderman, deputy sheriff and president of the board of health.

"Overall Club" Formed in Detroit.

Detroit.—More than 3,000 members of the Loyal Order of Moose, at a meeting in Moose temple, declared a boycott against high-priced clothing and pledged themselves to wear overalls until such time when the price of more genteel apparel is reduced. The members sponsoring the "clothes strike" issued an appeal to the 8,000 Moose of the city urging them to "stand by American honor and defeat the profiteers."

Blames Wilson For High Sugar Cost.

Washington.—Had President Wilson's board bought the Cuban and Louisiana sugar crops last August as he was advised to do by majority of the sugar equalization board, sugar would now be selling at not more than 11 cents a pound, George A. Zabinski, chairman of the sugar board told the house sub-committee investigating the action of Attorney General Palmer in allowing the Louisiana sugar growers to charge 17 and 18 cents per pound for sugar.

Plumbers Ride to Work in Taxis.

Birmingham, Ala.—Master plumbers of Birmingham, are required to furnish chauffeurs to drive union plumbers to and from work and the chauffeurs are not permitted to do any plumbing work, according to findings of a committee of allied civic clubs which investigated the recent demand of the union men for a wage of $12 a day. The committee said its inquiry also had disclosed that use of apprentices was forbidden with a view to restricting the number of available plumbers.

SILK RIVALS WOOL IN SUMMER SUITS

HOW ATTRACTIVELY outfitted for a summer time promenade is the beautiful girl pictured here! She has arrived at a stunning appearance by employing simple means, and in this case the character of the fabric used is almost altogether responsible for the success of the costume. This is one of many spring suits made of heavy fiber silk, which are vying with those of wool materials in the spring displays. These silks have a brilliant luster and are woven in many novel patterns employing one or two colors. They have been used heretofore for sports wear, more than for any other, but progress in weaving them has opened a new field of usefulness and they are delighting designers by supplying a new and wonderful medium for street and formal suits.

There is a great variety of weaves in this modern silk, the crepe and ribbed effects predominating, with many new drop-stitch designs. These new weaves inspire designers to further efforts in the invention of styles suited to them. Such brilliant effects in the material make much decoration quite out of the question and this accounts for the simplicity which is so effective in suits and costumes that are made of colorful or lustrous fabrics. In the suit pictured two tones of color, gray and green, both in rather dark shades, are woven in plain crepe and checkerboard pattern. The plain weave makes the skirt and is used on the coat in collar and girdle. The collar merges into a facing below the waist-line. There is nothing to describe in the suit that may not be gathered from the picture. Its very long, close-fitting sleeves with fascinating frills of lace falling over the hands and the plaited jabot of wide, net-top lace, that plays the part of a vest at the front, are details that cannot be spared from this design.

Hat, shoes, stockings and parasol have all been carefully selected for this suit. The hat in light gray and dark green has a spine of black in narrow bands of patent leather, to give it sparkle. Shoes and stockings are gray and green predominates in the parasol where bands of black repeat the black note in the hat.

UNBLEACHED domestic cotton, in the heavy, strong qualities, is among the reliable things that the high cost of living has brought into new uses. A few women have made themselves bungalow aprons and house dresses of it for summer wear and it proves surprisingly attractive with a little simple needlework as its finish. Where it proves most useful is in attire for little folks in dresses and slips or aprons. The natural color makes a fine background for little figures worked in cross-stitch on pockets or belts—bunnies, chickens, birds, kittens and other small friends of the youngsters.

In the matter of price, for several things, the steady upward progress appears to have reached the point where women balk at paying it. They are demanding less expensive millinery for one thing and are determined to do without silk garments unless the prices become stable and less exorbitant for silk fabrics. In a few cities, leagues have been formed whose members pledge themselves to wear their clothes until they are worn out. Suits and dresses of wool are remodeled and worn with good grace since it is hard to get reliable goods even at the increased prices. Shoes are maintained by journeys to the repair shop—where new half soles and rehabilitated heels, give them a prolonged term of service. These economies are enforced in most cases, but it is a good thing that American women are going through this experience for they have long been accused of being the most extravagant and wasteful of civilized people.

This season there is a good chance to economize in millinery because hats include many shapes that were worn last year, or even in earlier seasons. Sailor shapes, wide brimmed leghorns, some of the "cloche" or drooping brimmed hats as well as toques and turbans of former seasons need only a little alteration to make them entirely up-to-date. The light colors that have become soiled, may be varnished with a darker color, or black, and it is the simplest thing in the world to do this work at home. There are several stains or varnishes on the market, usually for sale in drugstores, that are easy to apply. The vogue for dotted Swiss organdie in facings and trimmings suggests one way of bringing the hats of yesterday year up-to-date. These materials are used over straw shapes and to make entire hats. Collars and cuffs to match the hat, made of the same Swiss or organdie, add the smartest kind of touch to a street outfit. Of course, every woman has a right to one new hat in the spring, but she is entitled to others if she is clever enough to make them herself and one hat will hardly answer all purposes. Even if it would there is pleasure in a little variety in one's headwear.

Frocks Are Interesting.

Smart modes in dresses are in evidence on all sides, until it is difficult to pick out any one mode for word portrayal, but frocks of tricotine are decidedly interesting when developed with plaited skirts and tailored surplus bodices that wrap about the waist and finish with such effect, the entire bodice being almost completely covered with Japanese embroidery.

Coat Sleeves.

Coat sleeves are generally three-quarter length and the blouses that are worn underneath them are more often than not equipped with sleeves that reach about half way between shoulder and elbow.

Beaded Parasol Here.

The parasol isn't getting left in this vogue of beads. This sun shield in red has a scattering in cut jet beads, in conventional design. A black parasol has a flowered tracery in rose and green shimmering beads.

Net Popular Blouse Material.

Imported blouses are showing net as a material highly favored, particularly when it is combined with lace as trimming. Another feature of the new blouses from Paris is the long-sleeves which appear in almost every style. These either come in tightly about the wrist or hang in bell-fashion over the hand.

Will Add Flesh.

Massaging thoroughly the wrists on every side at night with cold cream will in time add flesh.

I have taken both the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and the 'Favorite Prescription' as well, whenever I was not feeling right. I never need a doctor. Dr. Pierce's medicines have been my family doctor for years. I can recommend them to all. If directions are followed they will always do right."—MRS. ELIZABETH DENISON, 1608 N. Johnson St.

Suffered for Years

Miserable From Kidney Trouble Doan's Made Mr. Barnett Strong and Well.

"I suffered untold agony with my kidneys for years," says John Barnett, 30 Virginia Place, Buffalo, N. Y. "Sometimes I felt that I would burn up with fever, but every now and then would have a severe chill. Often my clothes were wringing wet with perspiration. The kidney secretions were unnatural in color and odor and burned terribly. At night my shoes were so tight that I could hardly get them off and my hands swelled so I couldn't hold a teaspoon. My back! Oh, how it ached! I walked with two canes and was all bent over like an aged man. When the terrible pains shot through my kidneys my knees would give way, and many times I had to be lifted to my feet by people on the street. I didn't care whether I lived or died I was so miserable. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of all kidney trouble. Doan's made me strong and well."

FIRST BREAK OF STRIKE IN EAST

TRAFFIC NEARLY RESTORED TO NORMAL AT SEVERAL POINTS, RAILROADS REPORT.

VOLUNTEERS HELP DETROIT

Former Railroad Men, Thrown Out of Work When Factories Close, Offer Assistance to Roads.

Detroit—Although hundreds of striking railway employees were reported to have gone back to work before the expiration of the read's ultimatum in many of the backbone of the strike in the chief zone of trouble—Chicago—appeared not to have been broken.

Strikers there stood pat demanding recognition of their association. They declared the original demands stand and made plans to continue the strike which they insist is a success, although the railroads announce a further improvement in switching operations.

Former railway men, recruited from the thousands of workers released from Detroit's idle factories during the week, because of the yardmen's strike, are relied upon to break through the freight tieup here.

Henry Shearer, superintendent of the Michigan Central Railway company, said that volunteers have been called for, and that the response had been considerable.

Striking Detroit yardmen Saturday maintained an unbroken front, insisting that they will not go back to work unless their demands for $1 an hour and 95 cents for helpers are granted.

Conditions Improve in East.

Camden, N. J.—One thousand striking switchmen and shopmen here last Saturday voted to return to work pending adjustment of wage demands by the Railroad Labor Board. The decision was reached at a meeting during which there was great excitement, a number of the strikers bitterly opposing abandonment of the strike. The men were employees of the West Jersey & Seashore Railroad and the Atlantic division of the Philadelphia & Reading.

Engineers of the Lackawanna Railroad who had joined the "outlaw" strike of switchmen and yardmen voted to return to work immediately.

The embargo on express traffic was raised on shipments to and from all points on the Pennsylvania system with the exception of New York, Baltimore, Pittsburgh and local points on the New York division. This will permit the resumption of shipments of vegetables and perishable freight from Florida and other southern points to Northern cities.

D. U. R. CREWS ASK INCREASE

Want $1 An Hour For Experienced Conductors and Motormen.

Detroit—D. U. R. conductors and motormen through a committee appointed last Saturday night are presenting to the company a demand for an increase in wages.

One dollar an hour is the demand framed on behalf of the experienced employees of the street railway company.

A joint meeting of members of Unions Nos. 99, the Rapid Railway men; No. 111, the Detroit-Jackson division, and No. 26, including the Detroit, Monroe & Toledo employees, was to be held this week to consider the demands for higher wages more thoroughly.

The Interurban companies which are involved in the demands for more pay presented by the motormen and conductors have never before been affected by a strike or threatened strike in which the city lines were involved.

CHARGE PREMIER WITH MURDER

Blame for Assassination of Irish Mayor Laid to Lloyd George.

Cork, Ireland—Charges of willful murder against Premier Lloyd George were brought in the inquest into the death of Mayor Mac Curtain, of this city, assassinated last month. The verdict also charges Viscount French, lord lieutenant of Ireland; Ian MacPherson, former chief secretary and several police inspectors with murder.

That part of the verdict laying the crime to the hands of the police thought the jury would go so far as to charge the premier, Viscount French and Mr. MacPherson with the murder, even though the charge is likely to mean little more than an expression of sentiment against these officials.

It is different, however, with the police officers who, in the usual course would be expected to be placed under arrest immediately.

MARTHA JANE A DIPLOMAT

Even Stern, Mamma Couldn't Deny She Had Obedied the Strict Letter of the Law.

Martha Jane's sweet tooth had been indulged so much that her mother had issued the decree, "No more candy," and the remainder of the box had been relegated to the top shelf. A few days ago it was brought down and judiciously apportioned to Martha Jane, for whom a taste spoiled more, and even a second taste did not satisfy. When her mother saw her about to take a third helping she remarked, emphatically:

"Now, don't let me see you take another piece."

Presently Mrs. S— was called from the room, and when she returned she found her four-year-old daughter in the farthest corner of the couch, hastily making way with a nice, plump, chocolate cream.

"Martha Jane," said her mother, in her sternest tones, "didn't I tell you not to let me see you take another piece of candy?"

"I know you did, mother," said the little diplomat, "but I took this one while you were gone."

"SLANG" ROOT OF LANGUAGE

Idiom of Today in Correct Usage Tomorrow, Declares University Professor of English.

That the slang and idioms of today will be correct English tomorrow is the opinion of Prof. H. Glensman, of the English department, University of Wisconsin.

"Our language is made up of what was once slang, idiom, colloquialism, and 'jargon,'" he said lately, and warned that the most deplorable feature about slang was its tendency to produce mental slovenliness.

Professor Glensman then referred to the word "mob" as slang of 200 years ago and as such denounced in the Spectator by Addison.

"It is an abbreviation of the word 'mobile.' Even so the word 'pep' is vital and virile and will survive with the word 'snappy.' But to gain recognition slang must be free from vulgarity and cheapness," said Professor Glensman.

"The term 'How do you get that way?' is condemned because it is meaningless, but the term 'he has a pull' is approved as it is the opposite of 'push,' a word that has forged ahead through its own strength."

Just Where and How Is the Money to be Spent?

A businesslike Answer to a businesslike Question

THIRTY denominations cooperating in the Interchurch World Movement have budgeted their needs. No business could have done it more scientifically.

They have united to prevent the possibility of duplication or waste. At least a million dollars will be saved by the fact that thirty individual campaigns are joined in one united effort.

Each denomination has arranged its budget under six main heads:

1. FOR THE CHURCH'S WORK AT HOME. A score of times come under this head. Consider only one. Five and a half million people in the United States cannot even read and write the English language. Who is to carry forward this vast work of Americanization if the church does not?

2. FOR HOSPITALS AND HOMES. Every year thousands of men and women are seriously ill and are turned away from church hospitals because of lack of room. The children's homes are compelled to turn away more children than they can receive.

3. FOR HIGHER EDUCATION. Of the 450,000 American students in institutions of higher grade, one-half are in institutions founded and supported by the churches. Many of these institutions have had no great endowment campaigns, but their needs are just as pressing as the needs of larger schools; and you have only to read their list of alumni and alumnae to measure the value of their contribution to America.

4. FOR RELIGIOUS TRAINING. At least 12,000,000 children and young people under 25 years of age are entering American life without any religious training at all. Remembering the faith of Washington and Lincoln, do you think that America will continue to produce Washingtons and Lincolns if faith dies out of the hearts of its youth?

5. FOR THE CHURCH'S WORK ABROAD. Influence came first from the Orient thirty years ago; nearly all plagues are Oriental plagues. So long as China has only one physician to every 400,000 people the Orient will continue to be a menace. So long as one-third of the babies of India die before their second year our own babies are not safe. A Christian doctor or teacher sent abroad is working for America as truly as though he worked at home.

6. PREACHERS' SALARIES. The preacher is called the "forgotten man," and well he may be. Eight out of ten preachers are paid less than $20 a week!

Each denomination has its own detailed budget, and will administer its own funds. Your pastor has copies of the budget; examine them for yourself. In the week of April 25th-May 2nd you will be given your opportunity to help. You can do it with the full satisfaction of knowing that every dollar of your gift has its post assigned to it in advance.

FOR A SEVERE COLD.

"Chamberlain's Cough remedy cured my daughter Anna of a severe cold and cough a few years ago and ever since then I have never missed an opportunity to recommend this medicine to anyone suffering from throat or lung troubles. I cannot speak too highly in praise of it," writes Mrs. D. J. Shelley, Earlville, N. Y. Chamberlain's Cough remedy contains no narcotic and may be given to children with perfect confidence. It is a pleasant syrup so they do not object to taking it. Adv.

When you have headache
They will improve your appetite, cleanse and invigorate your stomach, regulate your bowels and make you feel "fine as a fiddle." They are easy to take and agreeable in effect. Adv.
